Legislative, Political and Other Kentucky News From Our Frankfort Correspondent.

"AMBER'S" WEEKLY BUDGET OF NEWS AND GOSSIP.

"Amber," the author of the following letter, is a Kentuckian, whose long political and newspaper experience should make his contributions valuable. This letter (and probably later ones) is prepared for this paper, but by agreement with us, portions of it are simultaneously sent to the leading weekly paper in each of several other counties.—Editor.

Frankfort, January 10.

The big political fights before the Kentucky Legislature were quickly and decisively over. The General Assembly seems already started toward a session of souse and snoces, indicated by the seriously intended measures elsewhere referred to, and by the unheard-of record made the first week. By the latter is meant the disposition, in two days' time, of political obstacles that would have required, in the "good old days" weeks of wrangling, perhaps an extra session, and attendant evils galore. The writer has watched a round dozen legislatures nominate or try to nominate a United States Senator. He has seen as many State Conventions and many more district gatherings fight over the selection of State and district nominees; he has seen the contest over a pagehip in a Constitutional Convention decide the next gubernatorial election; and, largely aside the policy of the succeeding State delegations to a National convention. But never saw he the same amount of politics disposed of in a tenth of the time, nor with less discredit to those most directly concerned. We believe that in Kentucky politics "those good old times" will soon be a misnomer. The "machine," conceding there is one, is about the best regulated and most intelligently operated for its size and strength Kentucky politics has ever known; those who fought at are, with rare exceptions, gallant fighters, who know when they have enough, how to get from under the bottom, shake hands and begin training for the future.

The prospects of a fight, two years hence, with Blackburn for Governor and McCreary for Senator, with Hager and Beckham to beat, is not the probability that the daily newspaper dispatches would indicate. If you will to indulge in a real political prediction, put it down "McChord vs. Hager—Haldeman vs. Beckham," and the fight all ready on.

Of all the recent winners, not excepting Judge Paynter, the two men whose middle name should be "Luck" are Eli Brown and Harry McCutcheon. Both, both of them with money, called "big money" in towns the size of Bardston and Russellville. They never wanted anything at home, and came away only to receive what most men consider enough to make a life of happiness. After getting a good office apiece without asking, they succeeded in marrying two of the prettiest girls that even Frankfort can boast, and again are given lucrative, easy offices, that will not take them far from Frankfort or interfere with any professional duties or business they may have at home.

There will be opposition to the bill proposed by the old Senate's "Revenue and Taxation Commission," which has handed in its big bill proposing many radical changes in a system that experience teaches should not be too often tampered with. While the suggestions may be gratuitous, I will not be surprised if there should develop in this matter a sort of administration and anti-administration fight, with the majority against radical changes.

The committees announced by the presiding officers at the reconvening Monday, are about as satisfactory as the very thoughtless task usually is. Speaker Lawrence will probably be accused of thinking first and last of his own friends, political and personal. But most of us will admit that is not a bad rule of action in politics or other walks of life.

Don't waste good, white paper trying to tell your readers about the contents of all the bills introduced and to be introduced. Less than one tenth of them will ever see daylight after they reach the committee rooms, and not many more are expected to. About another one-tenth of them will ever have a chance of passing. When a bill is well through one house, and by a good, safe majority, its prospect of becoming a law is good enough to make a mention of it of news value.

It should be said, however, that so far there is not such an indiscriminate mass of equally indiscriminate bills, and that among the measures proposed, are a number of vastly important improvements in the public service—in the courts, the taxing system and the management of the eleemosynary institutions. Otherwise, what promised to be a short, exciting session, already shows signs of being the dulllest, from a yellow newspaper standpoint, of any of the past decade.

Going back to politics, all the newspapers speak of Chief Justice Hobson's next race as two years off. Judge Hobson is to be re-elected next fall and despite the occasional talk of opposition to him, has his race already won—won by sticking to his business, or by doing more work than other members of his Court, and also by sticking to his political friends, who just now have everything their own way, and who wouldn't leave a greasy spot of an opposing aspirant.

The L. & N. has gone to work to build a magnificent new depot on the new site here. It is an improvement to the Capital Hotel will be finished sooner, or quite as soon, as the new Capitol. The business men of Frankfort have caught the spirit of the Capital City's present boom, and many who came back here after a few years' absence hardly know what they called a staid old town. One evidence that it is becoming a wideawake city is the fact that they kill a negro, or somebody else, nearly every Saturday or Sunday night. Then saloons are too numerous in number and too cheap in character. Frankfort needs high license awfully.

Representative Munnell Wilson, of Hopkins, is placed on several important committees in the list of appointments announced by Speaker Lawrence. He is chairman of the Committee on Federal Relations and a member of the following committees: State Prisons and House of Reform, Education No. 2, Mines and Mining, Immigration and Labor.

"UP IN G."

Earlington's Crack Military Company Captures Regimental Honors.

CAPT. PRICE'S MEN SHOW UP BEST IN KENTUCKY.

Will Receive Award of Colors for Best Showing at Inspection.

Company G is IT!

For the present and at least until another inspection the proper designation for merit and good work in the Third Kentucky Infantry will be "away up in G."

Company G notes the flag for making a better showing than any other company in the Third Kentucky regiment in the special inspection of 1905, made by a representative of the regular army early in the year.

The inspection of Company G was made on Saturday, April 8, by Capt. Saville, of the Twenty-seventh Infantry, then located at Fort Thomas, Ky., accompanied by Capt. Noel Gaines, Inspector General of Kentucky and Col. Jonett Henry, commanding the Third Kentucky. The Bks then offered the prediction, based upon the manner in which the inspection came off and the general apparently satisfied air of the visiting officials, that Company G would be in at the finish for the race for colors.

The first official recognition of the high standing of the Earlington company came yesterday to Capt. Paul Price, commanding officer of the winning company. It came, unheralded in the simple form of a pamphlet publication, entitled "Report of the Military Secretary of the Army on the Militia of the United States for the Fiscal Year Ended June 30, 1905." The report shows the standing in detail of each company in the State. Company G had the largest enrollment of all the companies in the Third regiment, 51 officers and men and Company I of Mayfield showing 50 officers and men all told. But upon the "percent of absent" the result of the inspection chiefly turned and in this Company G showed the best record, not only in the Third regiment, but in all three regiments of the State. Company G had but 5.88 percent absent. The company holding next best ratio in this comparison is that of Owensboro, Company C, with 9.30 percent absent. Five of the companies in this regiment showed from 25 to 35 percent and more absent from inspection. Taking the entire State Militia there was but one company that showed so small a percent of absentees, and even there Earlington has the lead. Company H, of Louisville, is charged also with 5.88 percent absent. But the total organized strength of the Louisville company was but 34, while the Earlington company had 51 members.

Owensboro has until now held the honor as color bearer for the Third Kentucky. The regimental colors remain at the regimental headquarters except when the regiment is encamped or in the field. At such times and until another company captures the right by superior merit, Company G, composed of these enthusiastic, hard working boys, will occupy the position of honor as color bearers to the regiment. Enthusiastic drilling and study has been held to an excellent standard under Capt. Price and his assistant officers, and it is not now likely to wane since the ed honor for which they worked so earnestly.

Earlington is proud in the possession of this crack organization, which but shows what this busy town can do when her people lay themselves out.

LEAVE FOR CALIFORNIA.

Three St. Charles Citizens Citizens Seek Healt at Los Angeles.

Because of impaired health Messrs. Geo. H. Faull, Gilbert King and Norris King, of St. Charles, left home yesterday for Los Angeles, Cal., via New Orleans and the Southern Pacific route. Mr. Faull has a sister at Globe, Arizona, whom he visited a few years since at a time when he was in ill health. He was much benefitted by the stay in Arizona and California. His sister lives at Los Angeles much of the time. Gilbert and Norris are sons of George King the St. Charles druggist, and nephews of the Robinson brothers of Earlington. Gilbert is well known here, having been for several months past an assistant in the St. Bernard Drug Store under Manager Bryan Hopper. He has, had a reputation, since he came to Earlington, of asthmatic attacks to which he has been subject for several years, and after the last one his father decided he must go west to grow stronger in a different winter climate. Morris, who is nineteen years old, has a similar tendency and friends and relatives hope that by beginning early both boys may be permanently strengthened. Gilbert spent some months in the Colorado mountains not a great while ago and was very much benefitted.

GARTH THOMPSON

Will Pay the Death Penalty for the Murder of Brame
in 1902.

TIME HAS NOT YET BEEN FIXED.

Without the least sign of emotion, the negro Garth Thompson heard the words Monday that took away all hope of escaping death on the gallows. When Jailer Craig broke the news of the final decision of the court, the murderer received it without the quiver of an eyelid. "All right," he said, "I would just as soon hang as to spend the rest of my life in jail."

When asked if he thought his attorneys would be able to get his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life, he replied, "I am not going to ask them. I would not turn my hand over to get my sentence changed. I have asked forgiveness for my sins and am ready to die."

Story of the Crime.

When asked by some one present to relate the story of his crime, Thompson replied as follows:

"I had to kill him to save my life," he began. "I shot in self defense, and if I had been given justice I would have been free. The day before Christmas, 1902, I laid off work from the mines and went hunting. In the evening as I was coming back to town I went by the house where Brame was living. You know he married my divorced wife. She called to me and asked why I did not get some medicine she had asked me to buy for her. I told her to let her husband get it. We had some words and I went over to Jim Lewis' house. Brame and his wife came over, and he left to get a gun. They told me he was going to kill me and asked me to stay until he was gone. When I left I saw him coming up the road and called to him. He did not answer, but I heard a gun click. I called again and again I heard the gun click. The third time I called there was a flash and I knew Brame had shot at me. I raised my gun and shot where I had seen the flash and then I heard him groan. I helped carry him into the house and sent for a doctor. God knows I never meant to kill him."

This was the story and it was related as calmly and coolly as if the man standing under the shadow of the gallows had been relating a youthful prank.

As soon as the day of execution has been decided on, Thompson will be placed in a cell to himself and the death watch set. The jailer believes his confidence and nerve will forsake him when placed in solitary confinement.

LID ON AT MADISONVILLE.

The New Mayor Doing Things—No
More Drunkenness on Streets—
Negro Restaurant Raided and Occupants Fined.

Mayor Vickers, of Madisonville, has put the lid on and screwed it down and has announced to the people it will stay down as long as he is mayor of that city.

Chief of Police Brown has notified the liquor dealers they must close at 11 o'clock and that any attempt to sell liquor on Sunday will be prosecuted. The mayor has decided to reform the colored population and those who have been in the habit of getting intoxicated and promoting the street will be arrested and fined or locked up. No more public drunkenness will be allowed and Chief Brown has been ordered to arrest any and all persons found intoxicated in public places.

On Saturday night Mayor Vickers and Chief Brown raided the restaurant on Center street kept by George Brooks, colored, and arrested three negroes and a young white man. In the police court Monday morning they were all fined.

Dalton has a Robbery

Robbers succeeded in entering the store of Bell Bros., at Dalton late Saturday night or Sunday morning and secured $400 from the safe in the post-office which was blown open with nitro-glycerine.

The robbery was not discovered until Postmaster Bell entered his store Sunday morning about 8 o'clock. Several persons claim to have heard the explosion but thought it was some one shooting. A reward of $200 has been offered for the robbers but it is very doubtful if they will ever be caught as they had several hours start and left no clew as to their identity whatever.

Some of the boys of Dalton claim to have had a conversation with a strange man Saturday night in the school-house, he claiming to be a tramp and looking for some place to spend the night. In addition to the cash secured the robbers got $25 worth of stamps.

Harlan-Coulter.

The announcement of the wedding of Mr. T. J. Harlan and Miss Sue Coulter, of Clarksville, which takes place today, came as a surprise to friends of the groom here, several of whom were recipients of cards of announcement. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John B. Coulter, of Clarksville. Mr. Harlan, who is known to many people hereabouts, is the very capable and popular special agent of the Memphis division of the Louisville & Nashville railroad. It was in this capacity that he came to know and make so many friends along the Henderson division of the same road.

Mrs. Coward Dead.

The sad news has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Coward, who are visiting his parents in North Carolina, telling of the death of his mother, which occurred Friday at 11 A. M.

When Mr. and Mrs. Coward reached home two weeks ago they found his mother ill and she gradually grew worse until the end.

Mr. and Mrs. Coward have many friends here who sympathize with them in their sorrow.

in the Philippine campaign. Colonel Edwards made a brilliant record. He participated in a dozen battles of more or less importance and on account of his gallant and successful conduct was recommended for brevets for as high rank as that of brigadier general. Colonel Edwards was a great favorite with his troops, and he was a very capable officer on the firing line when he was killed and escorted his remains to the United States. Lewton once said of Edwards that "he was the best in the line." The enemy and conducted executive duties as chief of staff in his last all night, for it seemed that he believed a soldier should never be without a rifle.

Colonel Edwards became chief of what was then known as the division of insular affairs. In 1902 the importance of this division was greatly increased by making it a bureau.

Lieut. Gov. Thorne has treated the Republicans, members of the Senate in an unusually fair and complimentary manner. There are but seven of them all told, and Gov. Thorne has given each of them a chairmanship in his assignment of committees.

Former Gov. W. O. Bradley was a guest of the Senate Monday morning and made an address. Among other things he said:

"I believe you are going to accomplish great good. This will be a business session. Many important things are to come before you. The system of taxation can be remedied and bring in more revenue on a more just and equitable basis. There are many economic questions to be considered. They were wild horses when I was here. I never was able to drive the team. There was too much politics and not enough of business in those sessions."

CHICAGO'S TWO TRAGEDIES

BEAUTIFUL WOMAN AND TRAVELING MEN DEAD.

Bodies Found Side by Side in an Alley—Household Woman's Threat Cut, and She Dies.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—E. Moller and Mrs. Almborg were found dead in an alley near Aldine avenue and Buckingham place, a fashionable neighborhood, at midnight Friday. Each had been killed by a revolver shot in the temple, the weapon which had caused their death being found beside Moller.

The bodies were cold and the tragedy had been committed at least an hour before. A card found in a pocket of the woman's dress bearing the name "C. O. Almborg" led the police to the residence of Almborg, where they learned from Almborg that his wife was missing. He identified the body of the woman as that of his wife. He was so overcome that he was hardly able to speak. When the shroud was lifted from the body of the man Almborg said: "That's Moller all right."

A hole in the man's right temple showed where the bullet had entered. The woman was shot in the left side of her head. The bodies lay side by side. Moller was clasping a photograph of the woman in his lifeless hands.

Examination of the two bodies made by the police established beyond doubt that the man committed suicide after killing Mrs. Almborg.

Woman With Threat Cut.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Mystery envelops the murder shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday of Mrs. Arthur W. Gearty, 56 years old, the beautiful and cultured wife of the president of the Universal Trading and Supply Co. The first information of the tragedy came when Mrs. Gearty burst into the office of Dr. David Dougherty, 505 La Salle avenue, in the same apartment building as her home, and with blood spouting from a horrible gash in her throat, attempted to tell the physician how she received the wound. Before the doctor could render any assistance whatever, Mrs. Gearty dropped to the floor of the office and in less than two minutes was dead. Her throat had been cut deeply and the incision extended from ear to ear.

The police theories are that Frank J. Constantine, roomer in the house, either attempted a robbery and was repulsed by Mrs. Gearty, or had approached the woman and been repulsed, deliberately cut her throat. Constantine has disappeared.

CONSUMPTION

MAY BE A GIGANTIC FRAUD

PROBABLY NETTED ITS PERPETRATOR'S MILLIONS.

The Norfolk & Western Stock Forgery—Probably One of the Most Gigantic Swindles.

New York, Jan. 9.—The Norfolk & Western stock forgery, which on Saturday was supposed to be a piece of ordinary crookedness in the "financial world," has developed into what probably is one of the most gigantic swindles of the age. The immensity of the fraud became known despite the most strenuous efforts to conceal it, and that has worked false paper into the strong boxes of nobles, knows how many banks and trust companies that even now do not know that the "swindlers" on which they advanced money are forgeries.

Instead of there being only a few hundred shares of the counterfeit stock, it is likely to run into many thousands, and a systematic search will be begun at once to discover, if possible, the extent of the bogus paper. It will be necessary, in order to search out the extent of the fraud, to have every bank and trust company in the United States open its loan envelopes and scrutinize every certificate of Norfolk and Western stock. As there are $65,000,000 par of the genuine stock, the magnitude of this task becomes evident.

Behind the plot those acquainted with all the facts firmly believe there will eventually be found a group of persons equipped with money and ingenuity. At least one of these persons was an expert lithographer, with patience as a predominant characteristic. Another member of the group was believed to be a man conversant with the business of dealing in securities and the rules of the New York stock exchange. Still a third person was required with sufficient respectability and means to negotiate with brokers as a respectable customer.

PRaises PANAMA CANAL COMMISSION

PRESIDENT DENOUNCES THEIR DETRACTORS AS SENSATION MONGERS.

Taft Answers Biglow's Criticism of Panama Canal Matter—Reports That Should World Welcome Opportunity to Retire From Commission.

Washington, Jan. 9.—President Roosevelt Monday sent a communication to congress in which he prides the work of the Panama canal commissioners and denounces their detractors.

The letter says in part:
"The work on the isthmus is being admirably done, and great progress has been made, especially during the last nine months. What has been accomplished gives us good reason to believe that the canal will be dug in a shorter time than had been anticipated and at an expenditure within the estimated amount."

Every specific charge relating to jobbery, immorality or inefficiency, from whatever source it has come, has been immediately investigated, and in no single instance has the statement of these sensation mongers and in the interested companies behind them proved true.

"Any attempt to cut down the salaries of the isthmian commission or of their subordinates who are doing important work would be ruinous from the standpoint of accomplishing the work effectively. To attempt to secure men on insufficient salaries would amount to putting a premium on inefficiency."

"The zeal, intelligence and efficient public service of the isthmian commission and its subordinates have been noteworthy. I court the fullest, most exhaustive and most searching investigation of any matter, and in any case of them is ever shown to have done wrong, his punishment shall be exemplary. But I ask that they be decently and that their hands be upheld as long as they are decently."

An Answer From Taft.

Washington, Jan. 9.—The press will get a complete answer to the article of Postmaster Biglow, recently printed in a weekly magazine, from the pen of Mr. Taft. Among other things, it will be incidentally asserted that Biglow while criticizing the corrupt inspection of isthmian affairs by the secretary of war, spent but a single day on the isthmus and made no 24-hour inspection the basis for his sweeping arraignment of the administration, and more particularly of Mr. Taft.

See Mr. Taft's Reply.

The letter of Secretary Taft, in which he so openly disapproves of the action of Biglow, has been received by the canal commission and head of the railroad project gives copies to the president's reports that Mr. Taft would welcome a chance to give up his government's commission, and return to the railroad business exclusively. It has been hinted in some quarters that when it comes to the action of the senate in insisting that he devote all of his time to the work of canal building and give up his rail road connection, the chances for his Shonte retirement will be found. It was given assurance by his railway company, which was the work of the president that he would resign the private connection.

Colton, the controller and general receiver of Dominican customs, has ended the state department from San Domingo that President Carter has named as legally impeached Friday by congress and that the revolt is practically ended. Raymond Carver is acting president, pending final action by the supreme court.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The state department has received a telegram from San Domingo City, stating that President Morales has offered to resign if he is allowed to leave the country. The defect government, the californian states, will probably accept his offer.

UNCLE SAM NOT NAPPING

Philipine Army Active in View of Possible Events—In China.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Dispatches from Manila state that the army is making activity among the troops there, and that three regiments are under orders, "in view of possible events in China," sent to the Philippines for apprehension felt in diplomatic circles concerning the situation in the Middle Kingdom.

While officials of the war department say they know nothing of any movements being planned by any of the regiments, they do not deny that orders have been issued to send several regiments to Manila in the future.

There is an unusually large proportion of field artillery going out to the islands, where it has no need needed hereafter.

In diplomatic circles there has been much talk of interest in China as the result of the sale of the Philippines, and taking the form of opposition in foreigners.

TOBACCO SMOKE

AND FREEDOM.

News comes from Greenville that on the last Saturday in December a crowd of farmers, numbering more than one hundred members of the Dark Tobacco District Association marched into that town and, in a body, called at the several tobacco factories and warned the trust and independent buyers not to attempt to buy any more tobacco after the first of the year. The men were orderly and no penalty was announced for those buyers who might disregard the warning, but the action of the marching party was naturally interpreted as a threat. In view of the violence recently practiced, by parties as yet unknown, upon trust buyers in Todd county and the numerous threats made there and elsewhere against farmers and buyers allied with the association, the action of the Muhlenberg party would indicate that they attempted taking action "out of court." Threats may be made openly, expressed or implied, but their execution is generally between sons. It is certainly a travesty upon the boasted freedom of the farmer that he should suffer coercion or live in fear of others because he may choose to determine the market in which and the price at which he may sell the product of his toil to support, according to his best judgment, those dependent upon his labors.

THE BEE has from the first favored an association of farmers and business lines to get better prices for their tobacco. And the general sympathy of the public has been extended them in this movement. But the violence that has been practiced against independent

An advertisement in THE BEE is believed to be allied with the farmers organization; the boycotts that have been inaugurated and the threats that have been made, openly or covertly, written or spoken or implied, against the independent farmer or the independent buyer; the bodies of farmers assembled in numbers to march by day or night and deliver warnings to intimidate or coerce independent farmers or buyers; the demands openly made upon independent buyers to surrender their contracts with farmers; all these things are without the pale of law and dangerous to the State. Representations have been made, it is understood, by the Italian government to our government, drawing attention to violence committed against the Regie buyers in the Dark Tobacco District.

Goy. Beckham, too, has taken a hand in issuing warnings against this lawlessness. Parties in another state notified the Governor that the violence in certain counties in the dark tobacco district had caused losses to them and asked that their interests be protected. The Governor communicated with Chairman Ewing of the Dark Tobacco District Protective Association and also wrote to county attorneys of those counties from which violence had been reported, calling their attention to this lawlessness and notifying those officials that it must be stopped, even as has been known to rewards have been offered for the apprehension of the Hopkins county is to have a hanging. Hangings in Hopkins county have not been frequent, but THE BEE believes there should be an execution at any county jail in Kentucky; that all executions should be performed within the penitentiaries of the State. There is just now a movement by the sheriffs of Missouri to enact a law that will take all hangings to the state penitentiary. The BEE called attention to this last week. Doubtless our sheriff would now endorse such a measure in Kentucky and he would not doubt be backed up by many thinking citizens who believe, with the Missouri sheriffs, that such local executions are demoralizing to any community. THE BEE believes that Representative Wilson could do no better service to his county than by introducing a bill and pushing it through the legislature, making this suggested change in our penal laws.

MAYOR VICKERS, of Madisonville, deserves all encouragement in his declared purpose to see the laws enforced in his town. He has joined the "hid out" crusade and will doubtless perform his promises in this to the best of his ability. The impartial and thorough enforcement of law is no easy matter but all effort along these lines should be encouraged. Earlinton offers an example of the consistent and impartial suppression of vice and detection of crime which our sister towns might do well to emulate. Misdemeanors and crimes are rare, drunkenness seldom seen on the streets of Earlinton, and the police court has little to do.

The telephone as a matrimonial agent is both handy and unique. Not less than several couples in Hopkins county have conducted courtships by wire which, begun with telephone bells, have ended with wedding bells. Other "waiting" couples take their places and the wires continue to sing the same old song. The current is particularly strong in the southern part of the county just now.

THE BEE makes its bow again this week to another considerable number of new subscribers who have been added to our lists since the last issue. It is a great pleasure to get this sort of endorsement from the public we have been trying to serve for the past five years.

THE BEE has received from H. L. Catlett, Chief Clerk of the Senate, a number of complimentary notices and letters upon its big Christmas edition. They are too numerous to publish but we drop here a courtesy to our friends, and wish them even better things than they write.

The town authorities of Barclay are getting organized for a careful enforcement of law in that burg where peace has not always reigned. They have the backing of Earlinton friends and of law abiding people in their avowed purpose to "put the lid on."

GEN. WILLIAM BOWEN, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, proposes to get "the lawless man to the manless land" by sending five thousand families of the London poor or unemployed to Australia.

The Madisonville Hustler has begun the publication of a daily edition with quite a spirit of progressive enterprise for a town of Madisonville's size.

Injunction Against Labor Trust. Judge Taylor in the circuit court at St. Louis has granted an order restraining the printers' unions from interfering with the Groesbeck printing company on the ground that they are trying to form a trust to control the printing in the printing business.

Appellate Division Invalidated. The appellate division of the New York supreme court, in the case against Harry Marcus, charged with kidnapping an employee into an agreement to become a member of any labor organization, has reversed the lower court and released the defendant, holding that the section which forbids an employer to exact such an agreement is unconstitutional.

Moral:

If the old lady had brought all her produce to our store and received the highest market prices, which we pay, she would have had a plentiful supply of good eatables in the cupboard and the poor dog would have had plenty to eat from the scraps.

If you would be wise bring all your Turkeys, Geese, Ducks, Chickens, Eggs, Butter, Hides, Tallow and all the produce you have to our store and we will pay you the highest market prices.

Come and do business with the most progressive concern in Hopkins County. We will treat you right.

Gasoline Train on the West.

The Chicago and Alton railroad has just completed tests with gasoline cars designed to compete with trolley cars between Chicago and Alton. After a long night's haul, the small steam engines, the Alton people, reached the station in a single car using gasoline as a motive power. The tests were for short trips at high speed with frequent stops in a district where passenger traffic is usually heavy. The test runs the car, loaded to its capacity, attained a rate of forty miles an hour. It takes much less time in reaching full speed from a dead stop than the light trains drawn by steam engines. As a result of experience the Alton will purchase enough gasoline motor cars to take the place of steam trains which have been used in the company's interurban service.

Another coal train was put on the Henderson division last week. This train will work the mines north of here and Conductor Bailey and crew were assigned the run. The coal train is the work of Conductor Eugene Cargill will only do work at the mines on the south end hereafter.

New East Mail to the West.

Postmaster General Cortelyou has put into effect a new schedule of mails between the east and the west, beginning with January 1, by virtue of which twelve hours is cut from the time between New York and San Francisco. The fight for carrying the mails goes on between the transcontinental lines. The Union Pacific announced a cut of five hours between Omaha and Ogden, and the Southern Pacific made an equal cut between Ogden and San Francisco. The fight is between the New York Central lines, connecting with the Burlington and Union Pacific on the one side, and the Pennsylvania, the Missouri Pacific and the Atlantic City with the Santa Fe. The Santa Fe will be the route saving the fastest run by March 1.

Men of Hoboken, Santa Fe. Trainmen on the Santa Fe have been greatly interested with of late by a horde of tramps who, to the number of 2000 or more, are said to be camping along the lines between Deming and Albuquerque, N. M. All railroad men are obliged to go armed and a number have been appointed deputy sheriffs to protect the trains.

C. A. Parsons, formerly employed as dispatcher on the Henderson division, died at Livingston, Ky., last Thursday, after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Parsons lived in this city for quite awhile and friends here regret to hear of his death.

Conductor Sam Morgan was off duty the past week. Conductor Sam Riney had charge of the run.

The Illinois Central is putting up long distance color signals on the Pequot division of the road. This will be a great improvement and will greatly lessen the chance of accident on that division.

Following the resignation of Ira Bennett as railway mail clerk on the Owensboro and Russellville railroad, Jesse H. Holland, formerly running on the Nashville and St. Louis route, has been appointed to the vacancy.

The Chicago and Florida limited was inaugurated last Monday. The train will be just about as it was last year, with the exception of a slight improvement in conveniences. The Limited consists of one baggage car, one coach, two standard sleeping cars, one combination sleeper and observation car and a diner. The train will be run on about the same schedules as last year.

Fred Hosse, Jr., who has been employed as caller at the Madisonville yard, is now making a record for himself in the railroad service.

Yard Clerk Mart Johnson has been appointed record clerk, succeeding Mr. Lomberton, who accepts the same position at Boyle, a suburb of Birmingham, Ala.

Night Clerk Henry Berry is now on duty, the change taking effect this week.

Wm. Hosse has accepted a position with the E. & N. surveyors, who are at work at this place. Eugene Foster is now working for the railroad company as night caller here.

Night Caller Leo Herb has been promoted to the same position in the daytime.

Caller Leo Herb was in Madisonville Thursday night.

David Barnett, who has been flagman on the interurban, resigned his position. He left Thursday for Chicago, where he has accepted a position with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Conductor Lewis B. Waltz, of the Evansville-Providence accommodation, has returned from an extended which was spent in Florida. He resigned his run Monday and says he was greatly benefited by the trip.

Richard Edmondson, of Owensboro, has moved to Providence, where he has accepted a position as section foreman with the Kentucky Valley Railroad.

Night watchman Wm. Jones, of the steam shovel force, has resigned.

For shaving, a customer with a razor that had not been disinfected, a barber at Kilmach, Germany, has been sent to prison for a month.

A Postal Anomaly. Over $1,000,000 rural free delivery routes are now in operation.

United States, post-office routes are now in operation. But singular restrictions are imposed upon the service. Congress will not allow rural carriers to deliver a parcel of more than a pound postage, and the weight must not exceed 4 pounds. On such a 4-pound parcel the postage is 64 cents, which is ordinarily a prohibitory rate. The same 4-pound parcel can be mailed to England, postage prepaid, for 40 cents. Apparently Congress had not heard of this remarkable absurdity.

All events, no legislative remedy is in sight. The subject appears to be sidetracked session after session. Each rural free delivery carrier serves an average of 125 families on a twenty-mile route. Congress will not permit him to convey parcels except at ridiculously high rates, and not take baggage, nor give room to a passenger. So the carrier at present must run his wagon with possibly a load of 30 pounds of letters, newspapers and circulars. In many cases the load is not over 2 pounds. Each wagon run on this system of mail system has an average loss of $1.00 a day. The postal deficit last year was $14,000,000 and is estimated at $15,000,000 this year. Is it any wonder, with the management that establishes 2,000 rural delivery routes and, at the same time, exercises great ingenuity in preventing it from doing much of anything? A new Congress will be elected next fall. Votes along the rural routes should ask candidates some related questions on this subject.—Globe, Democrat.

King of the Penguins. From the New York Globe. "The emperor penguin," one of the discoveries of Capt. Scott's recent antarctic expedition, was the subject of an interesting illustrated lecture by Dr. Wilson before the recent ornithological congress in London. The bird stands about 4 feet high, weighs 30 pounds or more, and with its black coat and erect posture has, when seen at a distance, a truly startling resemblance to a giant mah. These "emperors" of the great globe of pack ice which surrounds the antarctic continent, and on its dependent main-lands, are the creatures of the ice. The female lays a solitary egg, which she catches on the great ice feet, so that it never touches the ice, and is held there, covered with the mother's body until hatching occurs.

The Sins of the Parents

FREQUENTLY FALL UPON THE CHILDREN

Especially terrible does it seem that children should be born into the world—as they frequently are—having in their little innocent bodies the germs of Specific Blood Poison, or, more frequently, Scrofula, which is, as a rule, the result of some intolerable to contemplate if such scourges as scrofula and other forms of blood poisoning were incurable.

Yet for long centuries these diseases have baffled the most skillful medical science.

Men and women in the past have resorted to cures for these diseases which were almost as obnoxious and dangerous as the disease itself.

The taking into the system of mercury and other mineral drugs cannot be too strenuously condemned and avoided in such cases.

That a cure, absolute and sure, can be effected is evidenced by the following letter, telling of the result of taking

FOERG'S REMEDY

Osceola, Va., Aug. 18th, 1900

When I was born I was afflicted with Scrofula. After trying three of the best doctors we could employ they continued to get worse all the while. I was advised by a friend to try Foerg's Remedy, so I procured one bottle, and it has cured them and I am well. This was four years ago, and no sign of return, as I cannot say too much for this medicine, for I think it the best blood medicine in the world.

This is a true copy of statement sent to me by Mr. Courtney, and is in his own office.

Don't delay, but go to your druggist and get a bottle. If your druggist does not handle this remedy send me $1.00 for one bottle or $5.00 for six bottles, with our absolute guarantee of money refunded by druggist or our company in full. All packages sent in plain wrapper. All correspondence strictly confidential.

GEN. HADLEY SAYS ROGERS MUST TALK

FURTHER TESTIMONY IN THE OIL INQUIRY BEING MADE BY MISSOURI.

Hot and Worthy Contests Between Opponents Feature of the Inquiry—H. H. Rogers Denies That Standard and Water-Pierces Have Divided Missouri.

New York, Jan. 9.—"I'll put Rogers in jail if he continues declining to answer my questions," said Attorney General Hadley.

"If Mr. Rogers is still defiant to the supreme court of New York he directed him to speak. I will move to have him committed."

New York, Jan. 6.—Shouting defiance at the Missouri attorney-general, "I advise the witness not to answer that question, and the witness will not answer it," Lawyer Rogers defied the people of what may be expected of the inquiry into the affairs of the Standard Oil Co. conducted by the state of Missouri. The hearing was held with E. T. Bedford, a director, in the witness chair. When the hot personal altercation between the Missouri state representative and the Standard Oil lawyers had calmed down Mr. Bedford flatly refused to answer the question put to him by Atty-Gen. Hadley. It was:

"Were you absorbed by the Standard Oil Co?"

H. H. Rogers on the Stand.

New York, Jan. 8.—In the Standard Oil inquiry, being conducted by the attorney-general of Missouri, H. H. Rogers, one of the biggest of the oil magnates, was put on the stand about noon Saturday.

"H. H. Rogers," called Commissioner Sanborn.

Miss Zilpah Morehead injured.

While coming on her sled Monday, in company with Miss Shelby Wise, Miss Zilpah Morehead had the misfortune to overturn and injure herself severely. They were passing down the hill near the residence of Mr. Geo. C. Atkinson and had reached the crossing when the sled ran over a rock and caught Miss Zilpah's foot, turning it and spraining her ankle. Miss Shelby was carried on a rug and taken to the Christian church and was also slightly injured. When last heard from, Miss Zilpah was getting along nicely and will doubtless be out in a few days.

Mr. Rogers then got up and vigorously objected to having a sketch made of him, by an artist, and that individual had to go.

Mr. Rogers denied that the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana and the Water-Pierces Oil Co. have divided the state of Missouri between them as trade rivals.

"I never heard of such an agreement, and I don't believe it ever was made," said he.

Mrs. Ella M. Butts, a stepdaughter of George Rizer, who fought the Standard for twenty years, was Hadley's star witness. She testified that in an agreement covering the trust in 1882 the name of the Water-Pierces Co. appeared.

A New Witness on the Stand.

New York, Jan. 9.—H. C. Hardesty testified that he had been connected with the Standard Oil Co. and later with the Republic as traveling man. He said the Republic got much of its oil from the Standard Oil distributive point in Cleveland.

When he left the employ of the oil company he said that he was offered a ticket to Europe, but no return coupon. He declined to accept the ticket.

Mr. H. H. Rogers was again on the stand, but little information was gained from him.

Photographers have been barred from the room. They even went so far as to take flashlight pictures, fill the room with smoke.

Hadley and Jerome Center.

New York, Jan. 9.—Atty-Gen. Hadley is in consultation with District Attorney Jerome Monday. Mr. Hadley said:

"A petition to the supreme court of New York to compel the witnesses to answer my questions is being prepared and will be presented as soon as possible."

Mr. Pierce Was Carcured.

New York, Jan. 9.—In the bathroom of his luxurious suite of apartments in the Waldorf-Astoria, Henry Clay Pierce, a multimillionaire oil man, was held prisoner. It is learned, for more than an hour last Wednesday by a subpoena served. It was not until after Mr. Pierce's frantic knocking, kicking and shouting had attracted the attention of the members of his family in a remote section of the large apartment that a neighborhood policeman from them to the office brought the house detective up and laid him asleep.

Miss Lena Pierce committed suicide at St. Joseph, Mo., making the third of the family to commit self murder.

LELAND W. PRIOR A SUICIDE

WAS ONE OF CLEVELAND'S BEST KNOWN FINANCIERS.

Fired Two Shots Into His Head While Standing in Front of a Mirror in the Hollander Hotel.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 10.—Leland W. Prior, one of the best-known men in financial circles in Cleveland, and junior member of the stock brokerage firm of Davidson, Prior & Co., shot and killed himself in a room at the Hollander hotel Friday afternoon.

Mr. Prior went to the hotel on Monday afternoon. He did not leave the hotel between Monday afternoon and the time of his death.

All Tuesday morning, according to the attendants of the hotel, he paced restlessly up and down the lobby. He appeared to be worrying about something.

Shortly after noon, N. B. Hasbrouck, of the firm, called to see Prior. They had a long talk. They sat in Prior's room, and Hasbrouck evidently made efforts to rouse Prior from his nervousness.

In killing himself, Prior evidently stood in front of a mirror. One shot is still in his head. The other went clear through the temples and broke a picture on an opposite wall. Prior fell in his tracks.

George B. Denison, brother of the senior member of the firm, said he could not understand Mr. Prior's desire to end his life, but there are rumors of the firm being taken in the stock market to the extent of half a million.

Mr. Prior was about 45 years old, married and had two children.

THE GREENE-GAYNOR CASE

The Alleged Accomplices of Othello M. Carter on Trial at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 10.—The trial of Fred J. Greene and John F. Gaynor, charged with defrauding the government out of more than $1,000,000, began in the federal court here Tuesday.

The defendants were recently returned from Canada, where they fought extradition for

The charges against the defendants on which they were indicted by the federal grand jury in Georgia grew out of the Savannah harbor improvements.

Greene and Gaynor, members of the Atlantic Contracting Co., were indicted in connection with Capt. Othello M. Carter, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government and with presenting false accounts.

The amount of the alleged embezzlement is variously estimated from $1,400,000 to $2,000,000.

After an investigation lasting a month Carter was found guilty under court martial proceedings and sentenced to discharge from the army and sentenced to five years in Fort Leavenworth prison, as well as being heavily fined. The charges he has since served, and he is now in Chicago.

ST. LOUIS POLICE TRAGEDY

Sgt. George W. Colestock, Twenty-Eighth Precinct, St. Louis, Police-Station, Commits Suicide.

St. Louis, Jan. 10.—Sgt. George Colestock was found dead Tuesday night in a room at the Windsor hotel, corner of Jefferson and Lawton avenues, under circumstances that make it reasonably certain that he shot himself with suicidal intent. He was shot through the heart, the bullet having come out under his right arm. The police were called to the room by a neighbor who was a dealer in rubber belonging to himself.

Sgt. Colestock's transfer from a precinct in the west to this city had had for years, following the connection of his name with the Ollie Roberts graft scandal, in supposed to have been the cause of his suicide.

He had evidently stood in front of the mirror and held the revolver close to his breast when he fired. On the table in the room a box that contained morphine was found, with but one pill left in the box. So far as known, Colestock left no letter explaining his act.

Colestock had been on the police force since 1875, and had been a sergeant since 1894.

A SHOCK TO HER CHILDREN

St. Louis Woman's House Produces $1,500 Worth of Plunder, the Result of Shoplifting.

St. Louis, Jan. 10.—Mrs. Hattie Bayless, aged 42, of 6150 Eisel avenue, wife of a traveling salesman, the mother of four sons, one recently married, has been arrested on the charge of shoplifting.

The police claim that they have recovered $1,500 worth of goods, taken from department stores.

At a police station Tuesday, after a night in a cell, she confessed that she had been taking things from the stores almost every day since a week before Christmas. She protested that before that time she had never stolen, and that she had not attempted to dispose of any of her plunder. Her children were shocked at the revelation, and the oldest son attempted to conceal the fact of her arrest from his brothers.

She was known as a thief.

Omaha Neb., Jan. 10.—Word has reached Omaha that John H. Converse of Philadelphia has accepted the chair of homiletics and pastoral theology of the Presbyterian theological seminary of Omaha with $50,000.
